At our restaurant you will experience the atmosphere of the Wallachian region, great food and excellent service. We put a lot of care into finding high quality ingredients from local producers. Meals made from local ingredients are marked with this symbol: kloboucek.

The kitchen team works under the leadership of chef XX who applies his extensive experience from restaurants in the Czech Republic and abroad to add a new dimension to our menu. A wide selection of exquisite Czech and foreign wines is available and we can match wines with each course of your special menu.
